2 TODAY and TOMORROW

The Book of Everything

THE season of the highly acclaimed The Book of Everything continues today and tomorrow at Chancellor State College's Performing Arts Centre. University of the Sunshine Coast drama students are performing the play about nine-year-old Thomas, who lives in post-Nazi Amsterdam and can see things no-one else can. He also sees the unhappiness of his family and the pain that lingers long after the war is over. He carefully records all of his observations – good and bad – in his magical and hopeful Book of Everything.

●● Performances are today at 4.30pm and 1pm tomorrow. Tickets are $15/$10. Book at <https://payments.usc.edu.au/OneStop-Web/95P/menu>.

3 TONIGHT and SUNDAY

Corbould Park racing

THE Sunshine Coast has a double-bunger of race dates this weekend with the Compass Institute meeting tonight, followed by a full day's racing on Sunday with the 100 Club Race Day.

●● The Compass Institute Race Night is from 5pm, with the first race at 6.30pm and the last at 10pm. A free shuttle bus service operates from 10.15pm to Caloundra, and one free bus to Mooloolaba at 10.15pm. Gates open for the 100 Club Race Day on Sunday from 11am, with the first race at 12.27pm and the last at 4.53pm.

4 TOMORROW

Maleny Brew Crew fourth birthday

JOIN the fun-loving Maleny Brew Crew for its January session to celebrate its fourth birthday. Six Newstead Brewery Beers will be pitted against six other brewery beers of a similar style.

●● The party starts at 2pm in Finbar's, Maleny. Cost is $30 per person including pizza.

5 TOMORROW

Beach clean-up and turtle care

SUNSHINE Coast Council through its volunteer TurtleCare program, ReefCheck Australia and Underwater World Sealife Mooloolaba are calling on residents to give local turtle hatchlings the best chance of survival by joining a massive beach-to-sea clean-up event tomorrow. Several clean-up locations are available across the Coast from Shelly Beach to Mooloolaba. Sign on is at 6.15am at each location. Participants then take their rubbish to La Balsa Park, Point Cartwright, from 7.30am where they will receive a free breakfast barbecue and giveaways.

●● Residents can register their attendance online at www.turtlecare.sunshine-coast.qld.gov.au where they can select a clean-up location.

6 MONDAYS and WEDNESDAYS

Little Seed drama workshops

THE Little Seed Theatre Company is offering after-school drama workshops for young people from Monday at Nambour Civic Centre. The workshops provide young people between the ages of four and 18 with a space to explore their creativity. The senior acting and integrated performing arts class is on Wednesdays from 3.30–5.30pm for high school-aged students and will cover theatre sports, mime, improvisation, presentation skills, poetry and confidence building as well as dance, movement, voice development and musical theatre. The younger ones can attend the junior acting class on Mondays from 4–5.30pm. The under-eights can also join in the fun on Mondays from 3.30–4pm for dance, singing and voice development lessons.

●● Classes range from $110 to $200 for the term. To book, call the venue on 5475 7755 or visit www.sevvenuesandevents.com.au.

7 TUESDAY

Tiny Tots Tuesday

AUSSIE World has brought back Tiny Tots Tuesday. Now that the big kids are back to school, the little kids can come every Tuesday for their day of fun. For $10 entry to Aussie World from 9am–noon every Tuesday, tiny tots can enjoy selected rides and attractions while all adults receive a free coffee.

●● The Bug Run – Aussie World's new Kiddie Coaster – is opening soon.

8 NEXT FRIDAY

Fusion street work bus

FUSION Sunshine Coast's street work bus is back at the Sippy Downs skate park next Friday from 3pm, returning on a weekly basis. The bus includes a ping pong table, X-box lounge, outside area with Nintendo Wii, fold-out barbecue, working kitchen with a fridge, microwave and sink, plus air-conditioning. The bus also visits other locations across the Sunshine Coast including Kawana Shoppingworld on Thursday nights. It's run by volunteers who are there for a friendly chat.

●● For more information, visit www.fusionsunshinecoast.org.au.

9 NEXT FRIDAY

Meet the author

LEE Holmes will visit the Books of Buderim to share her new book, Supercharged Food: Eat Clean, Green and Vegetarian, next Friday. She will tell her foodie tales and give dietary inspiration. Nibbles created from her new book will be provided.

●● Books of Buderim is at 82 Burnett St. To RSVP for the 10.30am event, phone 5445 1625 or email books@booksofbuderim.com.au.

10 NEXT FRIDAY

ZZ Top tribute band

THE spectacularly bearded gents from Texas, ZZ Top, have been fortunate to enjoy hits around the globe including Gimme All Your Lovin', Sharp Dressed Man, Legs and Cheap Sunglasses. Tewanin Noosa RSL brings the ZZ Top tribute band to the Diggers Bar next Friday.

●● The show starts at 8pm. Non-members are $10.
